DECLARES FREIGHT BUSINESS IS GOOD

Charles J. Lane of Union Pacific Is in Salt Lake on Legal Business.

Charles J. Lane, general freight agent for the Union Pacific, and W. D. Lincoln, assistant general manager of this in charge of traffic, arrived in Salt Lake City yesterday and will be here

Lake City yesterday and will be necessive and days.

"We are both here to attend a trial for which the Jury has not yet been chosen, said Mr. Lane last night. "The trial is between the railroad company which we represent and the Woods Livestock company, and it may hang on for some time. We have little to do with the improvements on the line in the nature of extensions and the like, but can testify that freight business is good and improving all the time."

PLANS IMPROVEMENTS.

Assistant Manager of Denver & Rio Grande Discusses Situation.

W. S. Martin, assistant general man-ager of the Denver & Rio Grande, ar-lived in Salt Lake City vesterday in his vivate car and will remain here sovrelief or and will remain here soreal days.

"We haven't started on our big improvements yet," said Mr. Martin when seen in the office of J. W. Mulhern, sunerlitendent of the l'tah lines of the comremy, vesterday. "We are now looking the whole field over so that when the weather in the mountain places permits we will know just where we want to start to work first in order to bring about the best results as quickly as possible.
We expect to start forces of men to work in about thirty days on improvements at different places along the line. We have not chansed our plans about any of the avensive improvements, but we want to do the most urgent work first."

MAY REACH SALT LAKE.

Tunnel Project on Uintah Railroad Regarded as Significant.

Reports from Fruits, Colo., are to the effect that work on the tunnels at Baxter pass on the line of the Unitah radical will be started in the near future. This road is used for the transportation of gilsonite from the fields of Ulah to Mark Colo. where connections are made of gilsonite from the fields of Utan to Mack, Colo., where connections are made with the Denver & Rio Grande. Five runnels are to be bored on the line, the longest of which is 3000 feet, for the purpose of eliminating the steep grades that make traffic almost confined to one way. It is planned to extend the road to Myton, Utah, and it may ultimately be built to Salt Lake City. Thes have been ordered for the standardizing of the road and this will be done when the grade is cut down.

Miss Kramer in Hospital.

Miss Anna Kramer, stenographer in the office of Carl Stradley, chief engi-neer for the Oregon Short Line, suffered a sudden attack of appendicitis Monday night and submitted to an operation in the Latter-day Saints hospital yesterday forenoon. A report from the hospital last night stated that whe had recovered from the anesthetic and the operation seemed to have been successful.

Spike on Exhibition.

A tolden spike, that was presented to the Prince-Pioche Railroad compuny by the Jones club, was placed on exhibition vasterday in Stenacker's cigar store in Exchange place. This spike will be the last driven at the completion of the road tile last of May. The Jones club will attend the ceremonies at the completion of the road, at which time they will be entertained by the members of the Commercial club of Pioche.
